St. Paul's 25th Annual LUV Gala

San Diego, CA September 16, 2008 – This Saturday, September 20, 2008, St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services is holding its 25th Annual LUV Gala. This year's honorees are popular radio personality Mark Larsen and philanthropist Marie Tuthill.

Being the 25th anniversary of the LUV Gala, the theme of "Silver and Spurs" comes full-circle to the theme of the first gala. "We wanted the theme to not only be elegant and fun, but also mark such an important anniversary with a tribute to the very first gala," said Joni Walker, who is co-chairing the event with Shirley Knox.

Tickets are $200 and the event features silent and live auctions, dinner, entertainment and dancing to the sounds of Society Beat. Channel 10 Anchorwoman Carol LeBeau will serve as the Master of Ceremonies and the attire is black-tie optional or "rhinestone cowboy."

Proceeds from the Gala benefit the programs and services of St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services, a full-service retirement community. For more information, please contact Foundation Coordinator Nancy Loevinger at (619) 239-6900 or coordinator@foundation.stpaulseniors.org.
