St. Paul's 26th Annual LUV Gala

San Diego, CA June 16, 2009 – On September 26, 2009, St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services is holding its 26th Annual LUV Gala at 6:00pm at the Omni San Diego Hotel. This year's honorees are San Diego County Sheriff, Bill and Mrs. Lois Kolender.

The theme for this year's Gala is "All You Need is LUV" in reference to the Beatles, 1960's music and Love Uniting Volunteers (LUV) a volunteer auxiliary of St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services. "We're thrilled to have selected such a fun theme for the event this year," said Gala Chair Patti Roscoe, founder of PRA/Allied International. "The evening will be reminiscent of one of the most free and outgoing eras in American history so everyone should be ready for a good time."

Tickets for the event are $175 until September 16th and $200 thereafter. The Gala features silent and live auctions, dinner and entertainment. Guests will also get to dance and groove to local favorite Rockola playing Beatles' tunes and other hits from the 1960's. Carol LeBeau will serve as the Master of Ceremonies and attendees are encouraged to wear their favorite 60's attire or black-tie optional.

Proceeds from the event benefit the programs and services of St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services, a full-service retirement community. For more information, please contact the Foundation Coordinator Nancy Loeinger at (619) 239-6900 or coordinator@foundation.stpaulseniors.org.
