Needy Seniors in Tijuana Receive Furniture From St. Paul's

San Diego, CA June 30, 2009 – After fundraising to provide all Residents at the John A. McColl Family Health Center with new bedroom furniture, St. Paul's Senior Homes & Services knew exactly where to turn to find a good home for the existing furniture. Just as it did last December when St. Paul's was installing new beds at its skilled nursing community, St. Paul's Board Member Dick Thorn, of the Point Loma Rotary Club worked with the Tijuana Independencia Rotary Club to send the furniture being replaced to El Refugio, a retirement community in Tijuana.

“The donations that St. Paul's have made to El Refugio have allowed frail seniors to go from sleeping on the floor to now resting comfortably in warm beds,” said Tijuana Independencia Rotary Club President Salvador Castellanos. “This new donation of bureaus and night stands now allows them to each have a private space to put their personal belongings and greatly improves the overall atmosphere at El Refugio.”

“We're very happy to be able to help make the seniors at El Refugio more comfortable,” said St. Paul's CEO and Rotarian Cheryl Wilson. “Our mission is to help seniors and with the help of the Tijuana Independencia Rotary Club we've been able to make life a little easier for those in need.”
