

A Message from Rev. Jason Samuel to Residents at St. Paul's Senior Services

Dear Residents of St. Paul's Senior Services,

As your chaplain, I wanted to personally reach out during this time of uncertainty and anxiety to make sure you know that you are very much cared for and loved. I am confident you have already experienced this care every day from our incredible staff who are here to help, support, and do everything they can to make sure your needs are met.

We know that this time can feel isolating since we are not able to gather for social functions, including the spiritual traditions, services, and times of prayer that are routine and special for many of you. I want to let you know that myself and all our chaplains are here for you to help address your spiritual and emotional needs. You can contact me day or night at the cell phone number and/or email address below, and I will be here to listen, talk, offer prayer and support, and if need be, we can arrange a visit if it is deemed appropriate.

Remember during this time, that even though there are uncertainties, we are certain of one thing: that our love and our care for one another is greater than any of the challenges during this troubling time. So know that we care for you, we love you, and we are here for you.

Sincerely,

Rev. Jason Samuel, Chaplain at St. Paul's Senior Services
