St. Paul's Senior Services Honors Local Veterans this Veteran's Day, Nov. 11

Special 'thanks' to veterans within the St. Paul's Senior Services communities

WHO/WHAT: St. Paul's Senior Services, located in uptown San Diego, will be hosting a morning of activities to honor all American veterans.

On Veterans Day, Nov. 11, St. Paul's will be celebrating this holiday with a ceremony that honors its many veterans either living at the community or are parents from the childcare program.

Activities include:

- Flag-raising ceremony by child care participant, accompanied by Saxophonist Marcia Foreman
- All hands Pledge of Allegiance
- Sing-a-long led by John Iocolano
- Retired Navy pilot Timothy Conroy will offer a keynote, highlighting his life and military career
- Banner presentation by the Mighty Hornets classroom
- Certificate presentation to Veterans

WHY: Veteran's Day is the holiday to honor all American veterans; however, it is largely intended to thank the living veterans for their dedicated and loyal service to the country. Their patriotism, love of country and sacrifice for common good will be recognized at these activities.

WHEN: Veterans Day – Friday, Nov. 11 from 10:00-10:45a.m.

WHERE: St. Paul's Senior Services, Community Care Center; Playground Area
328 Maple Street, San Diego, CA 92103

Editor's Note: We recognize that there are an abundant amount of Veteran's Day events throughout the County. This is a great photo op for a kicker shot and can be a quick stop to or from other Veteran's Day events held downtown or in surrounding areas.
