St. Paul's Senior Services Named San Diego County's Newest Live Well San Diego Partner

*Supervisor Greg Cox dedicates Dec. 5, 2017 as St. Paul's Senior Services Live Well in San Diego Day*

SAN DIEGO, CALIF. (Dec. 11, 2017) – St. Paul's Senior Services has officially been named San Diego County's newest Live Well San Diego partner. San Diego County Supervisor Greg Cox dedicated Tuesday, Dec. 5, 2017, as St. Paul's Senior Services Live Well San Diego Day.

Live Well San Diego is the County of San Diego's vision for a region that connects individuals, organizations, and government to help the 3.3 million residents in San Diego County live well through building better health, living safety, and thriving. Live Well San Diego involves partner organizations in all sectors – from the government to business, to schools, to faith-based and community organizations – through a shared purpose of improving the lives of San Diegans.

St. Paul's was chosen as a Live Well San Diego partner for its leadership in San Diego's health sector, its measurable objectives, commitment to sustainable change, and implementation of innovative programs, policies, and practices that support healthy communities.

"I'm happy to welcome St. Paul's Senior Services as the County's newest Live Well San Diego partner," said San Diego County Supervisor Greg Cox. "Since 1960, St Paul's has committed to providing support services and affordable housing for persons of modest means and today they offer many great services to seniors and others."

As a recognized partner, St. Paul's is given opportunities to showcase best practice examples and success stories through web, media, and events. They will also join the collaboration of the growing network of Live Well San Diego champions and partners for the greatest collective impact in the city.
