San Diego Symphony Performs at St. Paul's Senior Services

**Seniors and preschoolers gather together for a morning of music, April 19*****

WHO/WHAT: Approximately 20 members of the San Diego Symphony will perform for an intergenerational audience at St. Paul's Villa, a San Diego assisted living community.

Seniors and preschoolers, from St. Paul's childcare program, will enjoy a charming performance of Pokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf." There will also be Live Narration conducted by Sameer Patel, the San Diego Symphony's Associate Conductor.

WHEN: Wednesday, Apr. 19, from 10:00-10:45a.m.

WHERE: St. Paul's Villa, located in uptown San Diego
2340 Fourth Ave, San Diego, CA 92101

WHY: This 45-minute concert brings together the inter-generational audience, using the shared experience of listening to live music to strengthen the bond between the two groups. St. Paul's is constantly adding new and innovative services to meet the changing needs of seniors. Services offered at St. Paul's Senior Services cater to a new generation of seniors with a concept built around community, family inclusion and interactive experiences.
